

Advanced training course involving a foreign specialist

In the framework of the activities of the ICT Center of Tajikistan and South Korea at the Technological University of Tajikistan in June - July 2018, a training course on modern means of creating Web sites was organized with the involvement of a specialist from South Korea. During the period from June 18 to July 13, 2018, Professor Cho Hyunjun conducted 160 hours of advanced training in WEB programming for 16 teachers and students. The course participants increasing their qualifications in Web programming at the end of the course received an appropriate certificate.

