

Opening of a sausage production laboratory

On October 22, 2018, a production line for the preparation of sausages was established at the Fanovar Technology Park at the expense of the German Organization for International Cooperation - GIZ in the framework of the project “Regional Professional Education Program in Central Asia”. The production line consists of 16 modern equipment for a total of 353518 (three hundred fifty three thousand five hundred eighteen) somoni

From October 22 to 26, 2018, an international specialist from Germany, Dr. Wolfgang Lutz, together with specialists from the Republic of Kyrgyzstan, held a seminar for sausages for teachers and students of the Engineering and Technology Faculty. At the end of the seminar-course, the participants received a certificate of a refresher course in the direction “Technology of preparation of meat products”.